LOST A VALUABLE HORSE

Albert H. Thompson, who recently bought a part of the Humphrey ranch in the Waldio Hills lost a valuable horse Saturday. In some unknown manner a piece of wood about two feet long and six inches thick penetrated the animal's body just back of the front leg. Noticing that the horse acted dumpy, upon investigation Mr. Thompson discovered the cause. The horse lived only a short time after the wood was removed. He had refused $200 for the animal only a few days before the accident.—Silverton Appeal.

SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sutherland and Misses Edna Cannon and Mrs. Chappert.

The second meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. D. Vanderbilt on Thursday afternoon.

Musical and sewing were the diversions of the afternoon. Mrs. Justice Coburn, vice president, presided over the short business session, and the new president Mrs. Roy Ohmart was introduced.

Assisting the hostess in serving a dainty banquet were Mrs. E. S. Coates and Mrs. T. J. Clark.

Those present were: Mrs. T. J. Clark, Mrs. Givens, Mrs. T. E. Herren, Mrs. Ray Clark, Mrs. Nellie Knox, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. J. M. Coburn, Mrs. A. C. Steingrube, Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Mrs. Roy Ohmart, Mrs. S. E. Coates, Mrs. D. Vanderbilt, Miss Edna Cannon, Miss Grace Robertson, Miss Coburn, and Rex Herren and Jennie and Vernon Coates.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the artistic concert to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Hartridge Gardner Whipp of Portland at the Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Salem Woman's club, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Whipp who is well known all over the Pacific northwest, is soloist and director of the First Methodist church of Portland, and also of the "Ad Club Quartette." Mr. Whipp is a bass baritone of power and sings with assurance; possessing fine stage appearance and ease of manner his concert work communicates itself so intimately with the audience that there springs up at once a bond of mutual appreciation.

Mr. Whipp assisted by Leonora Fisher Whipp, organist and accompanist, is doing extensive concert work and under the management of Mrs. Herman A. Heppner has already booked 18 engagements in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Glover presided over a small informal dinner Saturday evening, the occasion being in celebration of the eighth anniversary of their wedding.

Covers were placed for 7 around a table prettily adorned with nasturtiums and yellow candles.

An informal chafing dish party was presided over Sunday evening by Miss Lucile McCully, at Lausanne hall; her guests being a few friends who attend the university.

Those enjoying the evening were: Miss Barbara Steiner, Miss Carolyn Dick, Miss Ailene Dunbar and Earl Flegel, Warren Booth, Philip Bartholomew and Grover Gates.

Mrs. J. L. Olinger (Marguerite Flower) of Oregon City is visiting friends in Salem and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harris. She will return home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb and children motored home Sunday from a short visit to relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Frank White was hostess Thursday afternoon for a delightful informal Kensington, her guests being the members of the Golden Hour club and a few additional matrons.

Miss Calista Moore went to Portland, Thursday, accompanying her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore, who motored down for the day.

Complimenting Mrs. Laura Gale, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, who is here visiting relatives, Mrs. M. C. Pettys entertained with an informal "500" party Thursday night.

Three tables of "500" were circled by the guests and the high score honors were awarded to Mrs. Gale and W. A. Cummings.

Mrs. Pettys was assisted in the serving by Miss Hazel Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop entertained with a merry Halloween party at their home on South Commercial street, Monday night.

The informality of the affair combined with the graciousness of the hosts made the evening unusually gala.

The guests were for the most part the members of the Golden Hour club and included: Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. Carle Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Scheiberg, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Pemberton, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Wilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Poole and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ulrich.

Mrs. L. W. Potter was hostess for an informal afternoon recently, when she entertained the members of the Pringle and Pleasant Point social club at her home in Pringle.

It was the first gathering of the club this season and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Roy Ohmart, president; Mrs. Justice Coburn, vice president; Mrs. E. S. Coates, secretary and reporter; Mrs. L. W. Potter, treasurer. The fore part of the afternoon was spent with fancy work. An amusing contest also was enjoyed and the prizes were won by Mrs. E. S. Coates and Miss Wilson.

The hostess was assisted by the Republican Friends Refute the Charges

The attack made by R. P. Hutton, of Portland on Judge Galloway has caused some resentment, partly because it is considered out of place for a Portland man to take part in a campaign for local offices, but principally because the attacks which are in effect that Judge Galloway's decisions are against prohibition are not founded on fact, the following letter, an extract from another, were voluntarily sent the judge when Mr. Hutton's charges were made public.

The letter is from the editor of the Tillamook Headlight, a republican, and is as follows:

Tillamook, Ore., October 28, 1916.

Judge W. Galloway, Salem, Oregon.

Dear Judge:

I am somewhat surprised that R. P. Hutton, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, is calling into question your decisions in liquor cases.

One of the circulars reached me yesterday. It gives me great pleasure to say that when you were circuit judge of Tillamook county you received the approbation of the citizens and did the community a great service in severely punishing bootleggers at a time when public sentiment was prejudiced against the local option law and it was a hard matter to convict them. I believe you are justly entitled to a great deal of credit for the firm manner in which you handled liquor cases in Tillamook county, which was much appreciated by our law and order citizens. Several prominent business men were given jail sentences and others were fined heavy fines, some the maximum of $500, which made a large sum of money collected from bootleggers. Mr. Hutton's libelous matter published about Congressman McArthur before the primary election proved him to be unworthy of the position he occupies.

Respectfully yours, FRED C. BAKER.

In like strain Judge Vine W. Pearce, writing from McMinnville 27th inst, giving the record of three cases decided in 1912 by Judge Galloway, forever closing the saloons in Carlton, Lafayette and Sheridan all in Yamhill county, closes a lengthy letter thus:

"You most certainly have used your best efforts so far as it has been in your power to see not only the prohibition laws, but all other criminal laws of the state enforced."

Gene Simpson Writes About Pheasant Farming

Why not become a pheasant farmer? There is money in it according to Gene M. Simpson, who knows more about the raising of pheasants than any man in Oregon. This is due to the fact that Mr. Simpson has for several years been a pheasant farmer and can write of the possibilities of this kind of farming from real experience.

About eight years ago Mr. Simpson published a booklet entitled, "Pheasant Farming," and now that an interest has been taken in the subject, has written another booklet. Those interested should write for a copy of bulletin No. 2 on "Pheasant Farming," by Gene M. Simpson, to the Oregon Fish and Game commission.

BUYS A SPLENDID FARM

G. W. Hubbs of the Hubbs Real Estate company, put some "pep" in the real estate market the last of the week when he hid away to Seattle, got in touch personally with parties who wished to buy his Abiqua ranch, sold the land, turned around a couple of times and closed a deal for the purchase of the Eric Ulvestad ranch of 110 acres, one and a half miles northeast of this city. Mr. Ulvestad being in Seattle at the time. Five transfers were made in order to close for the land Mr. Hubbs was after. The ranch sold a few years ago for $20,000. It is the intention of the new owner to make it an up-to-date stock farm.

Percy Broughton is now living on the farm and will continue to reside there. Dave Marcoe is living on the Abiqua farm.—Silverton Appeal.
